

STAY SAFE, STAY SMART

Safeguarding your digital life means protecting personal photos, academic records, financial details, and medical info. Stay secure by spotting risks early and using strong defenses to prevent misuse or data loss.

Think before you click | Verify <https://> and the lock | Use *  strong passwrs | Log out on shared devices

PREPARED BY SARAN CHANDRA
COMPUTER SECURITY & PRIVACY BOOKLET

PAGE 4 - BACK

COMPUTER SECURITY AND PRIVACY

PROTECTING WHAT MATTERS

From personal photos to school records, banking data, and hospital information

By Saran Chandra

A STUDENT GUIDE

Page 1 — Cover

Threats to Computer and Data

The loss or leakage of computer or data can cause harm to individuals, schools, banks, hospitals, and other entities.

Theft

Unauthorized access to physical devices or personal identity information.

Viruses

Malicious programs that corrupt files and steal sensitive data.

Software Piracy

Using or sharing software without proper licensing or legal permission.

Trojan Horse

Harmful software disguised as legitimate tools, designed to damage or steal data.

Online Predators

Individuals who impersonate others online to manipulate, exploit, or harm users.

Internet Scams

Fraudulent schemes like fake lotteries or deposit requests aimed at stealing money or personal information.

Protecting Data: Practical Measures

Strong Passwords

Mix letters, numbers & symbols

Antivirus & Firewall

Block threats, monitor traffic

Encrypt Data

Use tools like BitLocker

Secure Sites

Look for HTTPS & lock icon

Log out on shared computers

Update & backup regularly

Don't share OTPs or passwords